

Brandon Long is an AV Preeminent-rated employee benefits attorney who serves as the leader of the Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation Group at McAfee & Taft in Oklahoma City, one of the largest of its kind in the region. His achievements have earned him inclusion in the Chambers USA Guide to America's Leading Lawyers for Business, Oklahoma Super Lawyers, and The Best Lawyers in America (employee benefits/ERISA law). He was selected by Best Lawyers as the "Oklahoma City Employee Benefits (ERISA) Lawyer of the Year" for 2021, an honor only given to a single lawyer in each legal specialty in each market. Brandon is a frequent author and speaker on employee benefits topics nationwide and has played key advisory and leadership roles in a number of leading industry organizations, including the SouthWest Benefits Association (past president), the Employee Benefits Institute of Kansas City (steering committee), the American Bar Association (Administrative Practices/Self Correction Subcommittee), the Oklahoma Board on Legislative Compensation (appointed member), and the Oklahoma Employers' Healthcare Alliance (co-founder). More than 25 years ago, Brandon started in the mail room of a large law firm, worked as a legal assistant while going to law school, and graduated ranked first in his law school class. Brandon then practiced with large national and international law firms in other markets before returning to his hometown and joining McAfee & Taft.
