

Mary Powell is a partner at Trucker Huss. She has over two decades of experience in all aspects of employee benefits. Currently, her main focus is assisting employers with the compliance issues for health plans and drafting executive compensation and nonqualified deferred compensation plans. Ms. Powell has a JD from Golden Gate University (with honors) and an LL.M. in Taxation from the Georgetown University Law Center (with distinction).